Bambouseraie de Prafrance

Founded in 1856 by Eugène Mazel, the Bambouseraie is a unique place in Europe.

The park of about 15 hectares is home to over 150 varieties of bamboo, and a variety of exotic plants and trees remarkable. The proposed route for the visitors on a journey from the forest of giant bamboo, the Japanese-style garden, through the Laotian village and the amazing valley of the Dragon. The Bambouseraie also has a floral garden and a water garden... and even a maze...

Each year, the Bambouseraie hosts artists for exhibitions in harmony with nature.

Labeled notable Garden and Southern France Quality, la Bambouseraie is now the first attraction visited in the Gard.

Since 2008, the Bambouseraie d'Anduze is included in the supplementary list of historic monuments.

To allow its passengers to discover this beautiful universe, the steam train that runs between the Cévennes Anduze and St Jean du Gard offers a stop at the Bambouseraie.

Forêt fossile

The fossil forest Champclauson is a unique geological site of its kind in France: the trunks of trees and plants 300 million years fossilized in "life position" in their natural setting, the cliff in an old mine.

The fossil forest Champclauson is a vestige of the mining heritage of the Cevennes.

In the showroom you discover the scattered fragments of fossilized trunks and leaves, animals of the Carboniferous era in actual size: millipede 2 meters long.

View Slideshow explains the fossilization of these plants.

The train takes you through a Mediterranean forest and you see some mining relics along the route.

A search area for children: paleontologists apprentices will be able to discover a dinosaur skeleton 6 meters long and skulls of dinosaurs (shovels, rakes, brushes provided for free).

Jardin médiéval d'Uzès

Site

At the heart of the city of Uzès, on top of a small cul de sac we are surprised to find in the middle of a site from the twelfth century, a green space where the old stone marry, and both seem resist, with de the plant kingdom: the Medieval Garden.

Its design is inspired by the closed of the end of the Middle Ages gardens.

In this medieval closed garden, you found food, medicinal , textiles, dyeing and cereals plants.

Much of plants wich grown here, accompanied the man from the beginning to the present day. They were used in the Middle Ages for food, medicine and for various purposes of domestic life: clothing, dyes, ornaments ... We also found an opening on the many varieties of regional wild flora which once occupied an important place among populations.

The Medieval Garden hosts exhibitions and cultural events.
